Policy CS6: Tuxford

- 1.1 Given the very small size of Tuxford, a population of some 2500, the suggested modest reduction in the split of overall housing to Tuxford of 3% would nevertheless potentially still equate to nearly a 20% increase in the overall housing stock within the settlement. This is moreover the case, when considered in the context of the past completion rate of only 58 dwellings over the preceding six years.
